Art Gallery of Ontario

YEAR IN REVIEW

2015–2016

Message from the President

The 2015-16 year was one of excitement and change for the Art Gallery of Ontario as we continued to fulfill our mission to bring people together with art, to see, experience and understand the world in new ways.

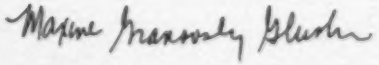
Throughout the year, 718,200 visitors came through our doors to discover, reflect, play and learn. We brought to Toronto stunning exhibitions that profiled masterpieces from around the world. We celebrated our remarkable collections, introducing visitors to new acquisitions and reintroducing them to old favourites. We invited contemporary artists to add their voices and provide different perspectives to our stories.

We engaged in conversation with our audiences about issues they care about and sought out opportunities for them to share their ideas, both on-site and online, through Instagram, Twitter and Facebook.

In June, we said farewell to Matthew Teitelbaum, who had ably served as our Michael and Sonja Koerner Director, and CEO, for 18 years, and we wished him the best of success as he took on his new position as the Ann and Graham Gund Director of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. In January, we announced the appointment of Stephan Jost as our new Director and CEO. Stephan joins us from the Honolulu Museum of Art, where he served as Director for five years. I look forward to working with Stephan in 2016–17 as the AGO continues to strengthen and grow.

We are very grateful to the Province of Ontario, the City of Toronto and the Canada Council for the Arts, as well as the many AGO donors and members who generously provide ongoing support to the AGO. This strong public-private sector partnership enables us to make great art accessible to larger and more diverse communities.

Maxine Granovsky Gluskin
President



Message from the Director

I am honoured to be the new Michael and Sonja Koerner Director, and CEO, of the Art Gallery of Ontario. I congratulate the AGO on a very successful 2015–16 year, which delivered an ambitious and innovative program within a balanced financial operation.

I look forward to working with our Board, staff and volunteers in 2016–17, to continue building new and dynamic ways to fulfill our mission to bring people together with art.

Stephan Jost
Michael and Sonja Koerner Director, and CEO

NOTES

1. The above statement of operations provides a summary of the AGO's financial activity for 2015–16. Financial statements for the 2015–16 fiscal year (April 1, 2015 to March 31, 2016), audited by Ernst & Young, are available upon request from the Art Gallery of Ontario (Director's Office: 416 979 6613).

2. In the 2015–16 fiscal year, the AGO received gifts of works of art with an approximate value of $24,638,000. This is not reflected in the financial data above, but is included in the AGO's 2015–16 audited financial statements.

3. The AGO records capital asset purchases at cost and then amortizes its capital assets over the useful life of the asset. Donations and grants received for the purchase of capital assets are deferred and then amortized based on the useful life of the asset.

4. Remeasurement related to pension plan is the difference between actual and expected return on pension plan assets. Additional details can be found in the AGO's 2015–16 audited financial statements.
